Center for Sustainability Introduces On-Campus Alteration Shop

August 17, 2015

The Center for Sustainability (CfS) at Georgia Southern is introducing a new program that will provide garment mending and alteration services to the campus community while providing hands-on learning for students.

The program, FMADstitch!, is an alterations shop, funded by the CfS, and is currently looking for student volunteers interested in gaining practical knowledge and skills in garment construction and business management. The Center will hold an interest meeting for the program on Wednesday, Aug. 19 at 4 p.m. in the Fashion Merchandising and Apparel Design (FMAD) building, Room 1003.

Though FMAD majors are particularly encouraged to attend, the program is open to all interested students. For more information, contact Amber Shelton by email at FMADstitch@georgiasouthern.edu or by phone at (912) 478-7000.
